

Cumberland North Academy

Grade 6 (Room 167)
Ann Rushton
661-2464

...what a child feels about self determines what and to what degree anything is learned.

*May every child be given the essence and dignity of self by one caring and giving teacher.
For it is of this sowing that the harvest comes...*

Anonymous

English Language Arts

Reading and Viewing:

Independent reading, research,
technology, poetry, short stories,
novels, dictionary, reading
strategies

Speaking and Listening:

Participation, formulating questions and opinions, critical listening, following directions

Writing and Other Ways of Representing: Stories, letter, poems, spelling, reading responses,

paragraphs, punctuation,
grammar, note taking, story maps

Math

Number Sense/Operation Data Management

Geometry

Patterns and Relations

Measurement

Mental Math

Science

Main Topics include:

- Electricity
- Flight
- Space
- Diversity of Life

Social Studies

Main Topics include:

- World Cultures & Issues
- Multicultural Canada

Health

Main Topics include:

- Human body, growth & development
- Values & practices for healthy living
- Strategies for positive personal development and healthy relationships

French, Music, Gym

Students have 2 or 5 classes in these subjects each week

Visual Arts

Making, Looking & Reflecting

Assessment/Evaluation

Daily work
Test/quizzes
Observation
Participation
Projects
Oral presentations
Reports
Group work
Conferences
Journals
Posters
Computer projects
Models

How Can You Help?

Continue to remain in close contact with your child's teacher. Make contact if you have any questions or concerns.

Provide an ongoing exchange of information with school staff such as new telephone numbers, medication changes, cancellations, etc.

Volunteer at the school.

Communication

Close communication between home and school is crucial for a student's success. Communication with the teacher can be done in many ways:

- School Agenda
- Phone (661-2464 ext. 167)
- Parent – Teacher Nights
- Team Meetings
- Email

CNA's Motto is S.O.L.E.: Respect for Self, Others,
Learning & Environment.

